Each and every lot shall, at the fall of the hammer, be at the sole risk and expense of the respective purchaser and the Auctioneers will not be responsible for any damage or loss occasioned by fire, theft, accident or otherwise, but no lot or lots shall become the property of the purchaser nor removable by him until the purchase money has been paid and the Auctioneers' official receipt or removal order obtained. If any lot or lots are removed in contravention of these conditions the Auctioneers shall have the power to seize the same by their servants or agents, or otherwise, to recover either the said lots or the price thereof, at their option, by action at law.
7. All lots must be removed from the place of sale in accordance with these conditions on the day of the sale or within such other times as the Auctioneers may specify. The Auctioneers reserve the right to sell any lots not so moved without notice by public auction or private treaty or to despatch the lots to the purchaser or owner at that time, at their absolute discretion, in either case at the expense of the purchaser or owner at the time as aforesaid.
8. For the purposes of the sale the Clerk of the Auctioneer shall be deemed to be agent of both the vendor and the purchaser.
9. The Auctioneers act as agent only. Each and every lot is sold with all faults and errors of description and neither the vendor nor the Auctioneers shall be responsible for the authenticity, condition, quality or correctness of description of any lot, nor have they or any person employed by either of them any authority to give any warranty or representation in respect of such matters. Any statements made in the catalogue or otherwise in respect of such matter are statements of opinion and are not to be taken as, or as implying, statements or representations of fact. Purchasers shall be deemed to have satisfied themselves by inspection or otherwise as to all such matters. All goods are being sold as seen and the Purchaser assumes full responsibility for examining and selecting the Goods to determine their condition and suitability of use.
10. The Auctioneers reserve the right to withdraw, alter, consolidate or divide lots previously advertised, catalogued or viewed, without any prior notice, and will not be liable for any loss or inconvenience whatsoever caused thereby.
11. If any purchaser neglects or refuses to comply with these Conditions or any of them his deposit money, if any, shall be forfeited and any unremoved lots sold in accordance with Paragraph 6, any expenses or loss caused to the Auctioneers thereby being recoverable from the defaulter as and for liquidated damages. This condition is however without prejudice to the Auctioneer's right to enforce the Contract of Sale if they think fit.
